Thanksgiving Holiday Challenge

- ☐ ELA: Show gratitude in an unexpected way. Think of ten things you dislike and come up with a reason to be thankful for each one. For example, a broken pencil might be thankful for finally getting a break. Choose your favorite idea and write a short story or poem that uses irony to show gratitude with strong word choice and tone.
- ☐ Reading: Lexia PowerUp - complete at least two lessons on your lesson path.
- ☐ Math: Log in to DreamBox, IXL, or Savvas between Nov 20th and Nov 28th AND complete at least 1 skill that is at your course grade level.
- ☐ Science: Complete these cPalms Tutorial on Repetition vs. Replication AND Identification of Variables
- ☐ Social Studies: Civics360 - Use the video viewing guide to complete the Civics360 - Citizen You topic on SS.7.CG.2.1 Defining Citizenship AND SS.7.CG.2.2 Citizen Obligations and Responsibilities
